

The International Academy of WingChun presents the 18th Annual Fall Event Series
in Berkeley, California, October 17-25, 2015 featuring

Grandmaster Sifu Klaus Brand

Please register for all events
by contacting Sifu Paul Wang:
sifu@iaw-us.com, 510-214-2987

Technician Seminar<sup>1</sup>

Saturday, October 17, 2-4:30, $70

Refine the comprehension and performance of your Technician Programs. Study each frame and every flow and application in maximum depth. Receive vital knowledge and personal support indispensable for advancement into deeper phases of WingChun.

All Technician Grade aspirants can expect to receive key details for your higher education above and beyond the Student Grades.

Instructor Seminar<sup>2</sup>

Sunday, October 18, 1-5 pm, $80 + Testing

Study to teach WingChun. Increase your conceptual clarity and verbal ability to communicate the theory and practice of Self-Defense. Official certification as a WingChun teacher (Assistant Degree, Instructor Degrees I-II) is available after fulfilling the training requirements with Sifu Paul Wang and examination by Sifu Klaus Brand. This attainment also allows you to open your own IAW Group or Academy.

Fall Event Series

October 17-25, 2015

Learn from a Grandmaster. With 45 years of concentrated martial arts experience, Sifu Klaus Brand offers a world-class immersion in functional Self-Defense arts. Take advantage of this rare, valuable and exciting opportunity to enjoy direct interaction and expert instruction with the innovator of the IAW systems. Choose to inspire your skill, knowledge and confidence to the next level.

Combat Class<sup>3</sup>

Wednesday, October 21, 7:30-9 pm, $45

Infuse your WingChun responses with natural flow. By preparing for emergency situations, you develop stronger trust in your capabilities. Combat training makes your overall action more decisive, spontaneous and fluent. You will explore solutions to attacks from any direction in standing, falling, kneeling or lying positions. These include defenses against various kicks, throws, holds and locks.

S.A.T. Seminar

Saturday, October 24, 2-5 pm, $85

Attend the first ever Special Applications Training (S.A.T.). A new format designed for the German Special Police Force, S.A.T. expresses the essence of decades of martial arts expertise. It seamlessly integrates the most practical aspects of the four IAW WingChun Forms, the weapon strategies of IAW Escrima and intensive IAW Combat training. The result is simple, complete and effective.

WingChun Seminar

Sunday, October 25, 1-5 pm, $80 + Testing

Join us for the finale of the Fall Event Series as all members gather for a fun afternoon to experience the full IAW curriculum. Boost your mental state and physical skills. In Regular Classes you drill specific parts of your Program. WingChun Seminars help you realize a broader overview with greater proficiency. Graduation testing is available if you deemed ready by your responsible instructor.

<sup>1</sup>Prerequisite is 11th Student Grade; <sup>2</sup>Prerequisite is 5th Student Grade; <sup>3</sup>Combat Class is held at 5004 Scotts Valley Dr, Scotts Valley, CA 95066. All other events are held at the IAW-US Headquarters, 1380 University Ave, Berkeley, CA 94704.